Yearage

Dear Mr. Hall,

I can't begin to put into words all the fun and joy you have brought into our class. Sir, you have not just taught me the fundamentals of English but you have also showed to the class the work involved and the light side of study.

You have always tried your best to help me in and out of embarrassing situations which I will never forget. I will never forget what you told me one day when I was upset over something you said, "Judy, young people find it very hard to understand adults. The decisions we make do not always make sense to you, but when you grow up you will understand why we do things the way we do."

Thank you sir, for all the help you have given me. Now I think I too can say that you are one of the BEST things that has happened to our school this year and we are very proud of you.

Sincerely,
Judy Galdenisi

Mr Hall

I have truly had a wonderful time in third period English. I can honestly say that I have learned something. HAHA!
I have really meant a lot to me, even though I haven't showed it in so many ways. Will see you next year in my advanced grade English class if not before.
Thanks for everything. Wade

Love,

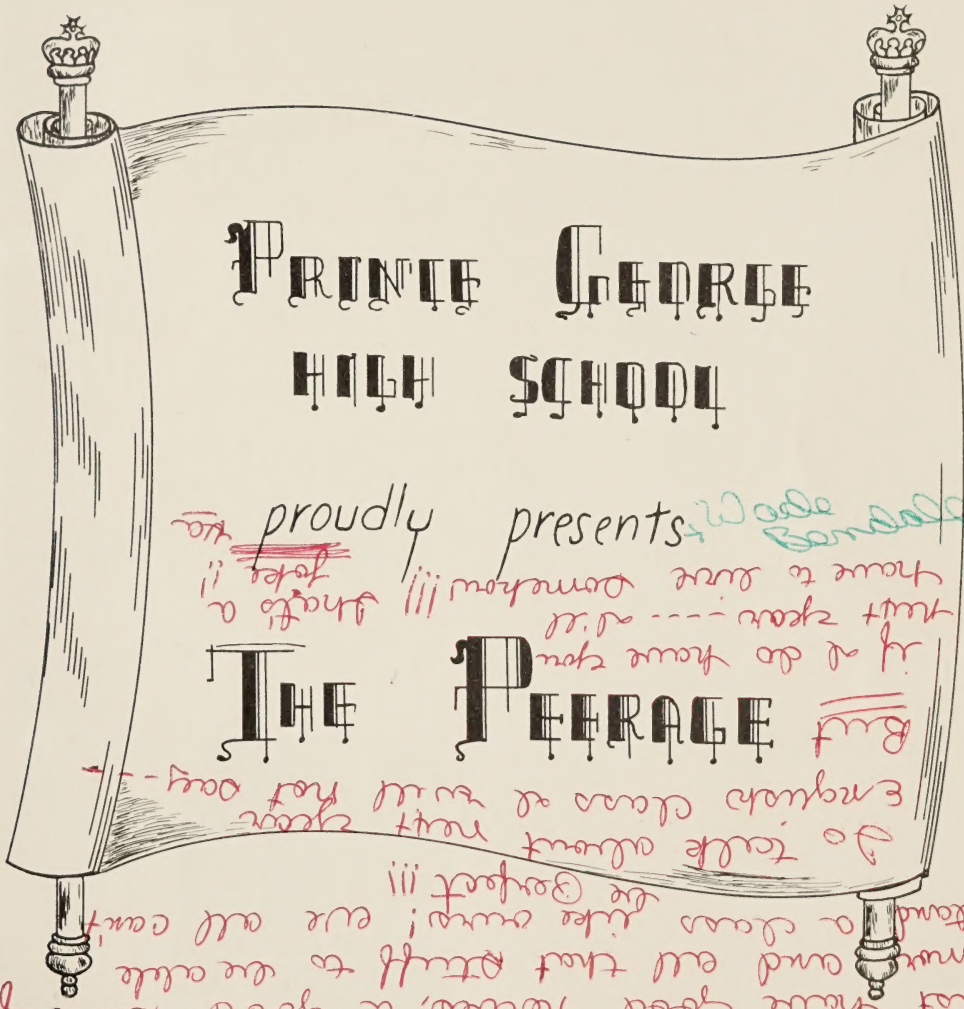

Although we had the same trouble in English class (Warren?) I thoroughly enjoyed it. I had more fun in this class than any other. Good luck always?

Mr. Hall,
 I have really been a pleasure

Mrs. Bettie Brakebill

Your smiling face, helping hand and willingness to assist will long be remembered by the student body, Mrs. Bettie Brakebill. You have given unselfishly of your time and energy toward making Prince George a better school. You have not been so busy that you could not help us in our troubles and worries and it is your loyal, warm personality that has given us a stronger character and makes us each a better person.

Because you have shown us a way of life following honesty, integrity and consideration that will make us better citizens, we dedicate our Peerage to you.

and Appreciate

Because you have given us so much of your time and effort, so much of yourself, our appreciation goes to you, Miss Carole Vick, in the form of this product of our young days.

We have laughed in your class, come to you with tears in our eyes, and you have always been there to comfort and guide in your own capable way. You have prepared us to meet the challenges, duties and problems of an adult world.

You hold a very special place in our hearts, and it is our hope that you will fondly remember us and will look proudly on the Class of 1962. It is with love and appreciation that we give you this book.

MISS MARIE ARMSTRONG
MRS. CHARLES THOMAS

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming you for it;

If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;

If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,

Or being hated, don't give way to hating,

And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream - and not make dreams your master;

If you can think - and not make thoughts your aim,

If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster

And treat the two imposters just the same;

If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken

Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,

Or watch the things you've given your life to, broken,

And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings

And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,

And lose, and start again at your beginnings

And never breathe a word about your loss;

If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew

To serve your turn long after they are gone,

And so hold on when there is nothing in you

Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,

Or walk with Kings - nor lose the common touch,

If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,

If all men count with you, but none too much;

If you can fill the unforgiving minute

With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,

Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,

And - which is more - you'll be a Man, my Son.

We, the Peerage Staff of 1962, wish to express our gratitude to you our principal, Mr. Richard Jewell. Not only have you been a help in putting together the pages of this book, but you have been a constant source of wisdom and inspiration. Our thanks to you, Mr. Jewell for your firm and guiding hand.

To the Students of Prince George

There are some standards which are requisite of any society, or any specialized society such as that which exists in this school. These standards are the ones that we Prince George students use to judge our behavior and actions; "Honesty in thought, word, and deed; Support of the activities of the school; Respect toward school and private property; Conduct that would at all times uphold the standards of Prince George School." These standards are implied in our Prince George Alma Mater and in the Prince George Pep Song. They can be seen in the actions of the teachers and leaders here at Prince George. They are stated in the Code of Ethics.

I think that we the graduating seniors have upheld these standards. We hope that when we no longer walk the halls of P. G. S., these ethics will still be upheld, not by one person, or one class, but by all people and all classes.

The Future in Retrospect

While listening to my favorite radio program, Blaha's Blue Room, I was surprised to hear announcer Blaha say: "We switch now to the lobby of the Hotel Prince George where the first annual reunion of the Class of 1962 from Prince George High School is about to begin." Then across the miles I heard the enchanting voice of Charles Starke as he said, "Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Posted here beside the door, I am able to give you a first-hand report of the guests as they enter. Here come the first guests now!"

"Here is Mr. Dick Dickson and his wife, the former Janie Connolly. Dick is now acting as manager for those famous lady wrestlers, Janie and her sister Katie."

"Next I see our ambassador to Russia, Miss Gigi Grill. Miss Grill has been very busy lately teaching the Russians the Twist."

"Now here is Miss Sue Saval. Sue is a very successful pawnbroker. She has an array of many valuable items in her pawnshop. Among other things there are 1037 5" x 7" American flags pawned by Carla Janto, which she bought to give to unpatriotic people; a huge classring pawned by Judy McLane; a self-portrait by Dan Reddix; and an original road map to Whitl's farm from Ruth Kvasnicka."

"Here comes Mr. Robert Hunter. Mr. Hunter is president of Hunter's Tea, Inc. I see he has brought his four vice-presidents with him; Mr. Terry Freeman, Mr. Monroe Hite, Mr. Phillip Andrews, and Mr. Michael Beachy. It seems that this organization started after a certain trip the P.G. Band took to Miami in 1961-1962. The theme of the organization is -- Hunter's Tea does not sponsor parades."

"Oh! Here comes Leslie Aldridge. Miss Aldridge is the owner of a seal ranch in Alaska. I see she brought her foreman, Jim Dozier, with her. Jim was recently made an honorary Eskimo. Also accompanying Leslie is her fiancé, Cary Tomlinson, an opera singer in the current Broadway production of MADAME HOUSEFLY, starring Bernadine Toombs."

"Behind Leslie is the former Glenda Evans and her husband. I see that they did not have time to remove their parachutes."

"Here comes Miss Eleanor Bresko who has become very popular after her recent film, I WAS A TEENAGE BUBBLE DANCER."

"Now here is that very successful lawyer, John Bogardus. John says, 'I owe it all to Miss Nester.' John is accompanied by his wife, the former Patricia Berry, and his secretary, Carol 'speedy' Brobst."

"I see we are honored with the presence of Mr. Phillip Mays, who was voted the best dressed man of 1982 and his lovely wife, the former Joyce Watkins."

"Now here is Miss Ruby Daughtry. I see that Miss Daughtry has gained a little weight and is currently holding the title of the world's second largest fat woman. She is surpassed only by Anne King."

"Immediately behind Ruby is Carolyn Pittman, librarian at Harvard, and her fiancé, Stuart Ragland. Carolyn and Stuart have been engaged for five years, two months, and three days now."

"Oh! I see Connie Barron. Connie has recently published a new cookbook called WILD IN THE KITCHEN, dedicated to James Kerl who sampled her recipes - and lived!"

"Next is John Dewell and his recent bride, the former Brenda Ingram. The Dewells have just returned from their honeymoon in Hawaii which they took via that famous ship the s.s. Sullivan, named after its original commander, Michael Sullivan. I see the Dewells have brought Captain Sullivan and his wife, the former Patti Rhodes, with them tonight."

"Here comes Buster Carter and Donnie Callis, the famous animal imitators, whose latest record, NOISY VILLAGE, sold over a million copies."

"Now here is Billy Moore and his current fiance, Sandy Kilbourne. This is only the fourth girl Billy has been engaged to in the last ten years. Before Sandy there was Alice Walker, Claudia Borrego, Suan Bogese, and Joan Kirwan. Poor Billy, he can't seem to make up his mind. Billy has brought his brother Charlie with him. Billy is having such a problem with Charlie. Ever since Brenda Patrick married Jimmy Burchell, Charlie's heart has been broken and he just mopes around. Billy has been trying to get Charlie interested in that lovely film star, JoAnn Johnson, but to no avail."

"Next in line is that multi-millionaire, Andy Baugus. Andy gained his wealth in the banking business -- he robbed one. I see Andy has brought quite a few people with him -- let's see -- there is his wife, the former Alice Hanks; his chauffeur, Ernest Cibula; his chief advisor on cops and robbers, Karl Hanson; and his bodyguard, Hilda Priester."

Immediately behind this party is Carol Arney, that famous gang leader. Unfortunately Police Chief Peter Baker hasn't been able to pin anything on her yet. I see Carol has brought several members of her gang. There is Ed Baptist, Judy Brown, Mary Malon, Wanda Carpenter, and oh yes, Carol's bodyguard, Edward Sedivy."

"Oh! Here comes Dr. Tarr, who has just completed a successful tonsil operation on Jean Kirwan. I hear that was quite an operation. Jean was scared to death, and it took the combined services of Nurse Ellen Johnson and Dr. Tarr's colleague, Dr. Butler, to hold her down."

"Next I see Richard Castle who has just returned from a trip to Egypt to see Jim Harris who is in the foreign legion. Poor Jim was married to the former Betty Nicol, and after only one year with his mother-in-law, he saw the foreign legion as the only resort."

"Now we pause for a word from our sponsors, Halstrom's Hat Shop. Here to tell us about those lovely hats is Barbara Ballard."

At this point I dashed to the kitchen to get a sandwich made with that delicious Pearson's Peanut Butter and Jerrell's Jelly -- ZOOM -- I arrived just in time to hear Charles Starke continue ---

"Here is our next guest, that debonair, man-of-the-world, Tony Hill. Immediately behind him is playboy Mark McConn and his current interest, Barbara Lane."

"Next is the former Paula Scott and her third husband, Gene Zurick. Before Gene there was Buddy Weaks and Melvin West."

"Oh no! I see they let badman Jim Hinkel out of prison long enough to attend the reunion, but I see he is handcuffed to prison guard, Joan Riddle, to insure the safety of the guests."

"Here is Richard Kline who is head street cleaner for the city. Behind him is Billy Palmer, president of the S. C. A. (Secret Cop Association), and his wife, the former Miss Barbara Wallace."

"Next is Wayne Best and Bill Merhout, race car drivers, who recently won first place in the international Kiddy Kar race. I see they have brought their mechanic, Dorothy Sabol."

"Here is the author of the famous book, HUSBAND HUNTING MADE EASY, Joy Sulc. It seems that this book is in great demand. Already Sandy Harmon, president of the Old Maid Society, purchased over three thousand of these books to be distributed to old maids throughout the country."

"Now entering the lobby is that famous lawyer, Bruce Eubanks, and his colleague, Bob Gardner. Bruce and Bob have been working together diligently for eight years now and are currently one of the most sought-after lawyer teams in the country. One case that probably brought on this fame was that of Richard Busby versus the Jim Stansbury Toy Company. It seems that the Stansbury Toy Company was making a doll that looked very much like Mr. Busby, and he took the case to court because he thought it was hurting his dignity and prestige."

"Another case that Bruce and Bob handled was that of Donna Underhill versus Macidull and McWilliams. It seems that the plaintiff suffered a mental breakdown as a result of having to face the defendants as she got off the bus each day. The defendants claim that they were innocently standing on the corner watching all the girls go by. However, the jury, consisting of Sally Rose, Gail Pylant, Sally Frazier, Mary Story, and Ann Yeatts, brought back an unbiased verdict of 'guilty' and charged the defendants with extreme cruelty as a result of their penetrating interest in girl's knees. Judge Long sentenced the pair to six months of flagpole sitting far away from temptation. The court appointed Larry May and Billy Rook as chief custodians to see that the culprits do not come down for any reason whatever."

"Well, who do we have here? Yes, it is that brilliant Sharon Peck. Sharon, like everyone else, has her problems, too. It seems that she is having trouble with the opposite sex again. Presently she is engaged to Matt Schon, David Russell, and John Hensey, and she does not really love any of them. However, she hates to hurt their feelings so she continues to date all of them."

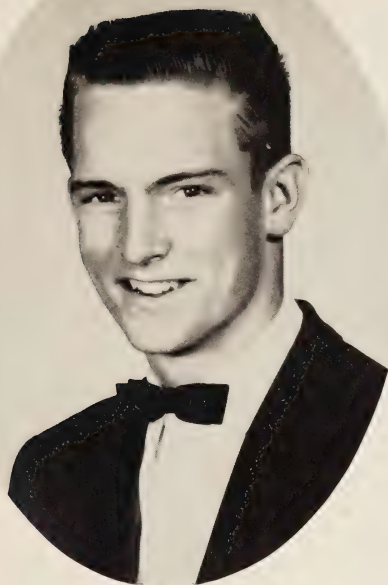

Now here is Pat Breen, author of BREEN'S BRAINY DEFINITIONS, published by Richard Corrigan and Co. With Pat is the current ping-pong champion, Roman Arcinas, who has recently defeated Pat Wayner at the National Ping-Pong Championship tournament."

"Now a word from our alternate sponsors, Kiser's Krispy Krunchies. Here to tell you about them is Linda Cummins."

Again I rushed to the kitchen, this time to get a cup of Cofer's coffee -- ZOOM -- then back to the radio --

"Well, folks, it looks like the place is pretty crowded now and I don't see any more guests arriving, so I guess all of them are here now. This is indeed a happy occasion and it is with regret that I return you now to Blaha's Blue Room where Announcer Blaha is ready to sign off."

Statement by Coach Swineford:

"The team this year was inexperienced, but they were very easy to work with. Despite the fact they were inexperienced, they had a lot of drive and determination. Prospects for the future are very good."
